CURIOUS SCENE AT CAPE MAY.

A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, writing from this fashionable resort, describes the following scene as having occurred to the mutual satisfaction and advantage describes the following scene as having occurred in the waters which lash the shores:—

*Look out yonder at that surf. Is it not glorious? See those swimmers. Will you believe that it is the lady whom you saw but an hour ago, shaking gaily her luxuriant curls from her ago, shaking gaily her luxuriant curls from her cape, and listening to markish sentimentality in the drawing room.—Joe said then that he saw a man got to Buffalo, he got to be a buffalo, Once some of contempt in her joyous eye,—is the same bold swimmer that is dashing away the waves outside the sarf? Come and go down with me, and I'll introduce you to her.— What! out thereof idd you exclaim? Certainly, out there of the care was a his wits' ends, but during the average and I'll introduced Joe to her this morning in her solid not make a pun on the worl Baltimore.

The actor was at his wits' ends, but during the evening with each of the least to be independent to the care two belongs and for the care two baltiments of the count and davantage of the wave to still be handed in the care of the count of the care of the head county of Chirch, by R.
